"Sun Valley Film Festival and Future Filmmakers Forum Call for Submissions"

The Sun Valley Film Festival (SVFF) and its Future Filmmakers Forum (FFF) are now accepting student submissions for the Fifth annual Sun Valley Film Festival to be held March 2 - 6th, 2016. The Future Filmmakers Forum showcases student-made films from the Wood River Valley, greater Idaho and across the country. A screening, reception and award ceremony will take place during the festival. The program encourages students to view filmmaking as a valid way of self-expression, which comes with challenges requiring fortitude, creative vision, and execution.

Students in grades 7th to 12th are invited to submit films, no longer than 10 minutes. Submissions will be received through the Sun Valley Film Festival website. Full details regarding categories, submission, requirements, deadlines and more can be found at www.sunvalleyfilmfestival.org/submissions

The FFF Hot Shot award will be presented for the best national film submitted by a student and will include a $1000 dollar cash prize.

The Future Filmmakers Forum was developed for Middle School and Upper School students, allowing them to experience the full process of filmmaking, submission, festival attendance, as well as to meet kindred student filmmakers and professional filmmakers working in the field. The FFF is presented and supported by Ms. Bex Wilkinson and Mr. Peter Burke.

Submissions for the regular SVFF film slate are also currently being accepted. Details on deadlines and more at <http://sunvalleyfilmfestival.org/submissions/film-submissions/>
