FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

“Actor Bruce Dern featured at 2016 SVFF Hollywood Heritage Film Screening” Dern will hold audience Q&A about his role in The King of Marvin Gardens

Sun Valley, Idaho.... The 2016 Sun Valley Film Festival (SVFF), presented by Zions Bank, has an exciting late addition to its already star-packed lineup with the announcement that iconic film actor

Bruce Dern will attend the SVFF. Dern will be featured at the SVFF Hollywood Heritage film screening, of The King of Marvin Gardens (1972), on Saturday, March 5, 4pm at the Sun Valley Opera House, and admission is free. Following the film screening, Dern will hold an audience Q&A. The SVFF’s signature Hollywood Heritage film screening, sponsored by Alaska Airlines, commemorates Sun Valley’s rich cinematic history by honoring a film that has made a significant contribution to the lexicon of American cinema. The Festival starts today, March 2, and runs through March 6.

“Bruce was a special guest at last year’s festival and we are tremendously excited that he wanted to return to join us this year, remarked Teddy Grennan, SVFF Executive Director. “And if you heard him at his Coffee Talk last year, you know it will be a real treat to hear him talk about his role in this venerable film.”

Dern, who has appeared in over 80 films, was nominated as Best Supporting Actor for the 1978 film Coming Home and Best Actor for the 2013 film Nebraska. He has had a long and illustrious career spanning over 55 years, during which time he has been the recipient of numerous awards and accolades including the Best Actor award at the 2013 Cannes Film Festival for his role in Alexander Payne's Nebraska. Often playing unsympathetic characters in supporting roles, he has amassed an impressive body of work over his legendary cinematic calling. His most recent role was in Quentin Tarrantino's The Hateful Eight (2015).
